

ANGÈLE DUBEAU

TO LAUNCH THE ALBUM ELLE FEBRUARY 11

RELEASE TODAY OF A SECOND PIECE: ELIZA ARIA

Montréal, January 26, 2022 / On February 11, violinist Angèle Dubeau will launch ELLE, a new album to celebrate the 25th anniversary of her orchestra La Pietà in style. Feminine sensitivity and virtuosity resonate on this, her 46th album.

Meanwhile, today she releases a second piece: Eliza Aria by Elena Kats-Chernin. A luminous and comforting work, created by one of Australia's most prestigious composers. Trained in Moscow, Australia and Germany, Elena writes a wide variety of idioms, including opera, orchestral music, chamber and solo works. Her dramatically vivid music communicates a mixture of lightheartedness and profound melancholy.

This splendid piece is available now on all digital platforms. What's more, a video directed by Alexandre Richard accompanies the release and can be seen here.

Flight, another piece released last December by composer Rachel Portman, the first woman to win an Oscar for Best Musical or Comedy Score, has been streamed more than half a million times to date!

ELLE AVAILABLE 11 FEBRUARY 2022

The album ELLE, currently available for pre-order, will be released February 11 on the Analekta label. The fifteen works that make up ELLE transport listeners to a mesmerizing universe, that is alternately powerful and delicate, touching and ethereal. It features curated pieces by female composers from both here and abroad.

ELLE IN CONCERT // NEW QUEBEC DATES

The ELLE album release marks the presentation of a series of concerts featuring female composers in an eloquent overview of styles and eras. Angèle Dubeau, accompanied by La Pietà, will offer several pieces from her two latest albums, ELLE and Immersion as well as works as various works from Ólafur Arnalds, Armand Amar, Ludovico Einaudi, Alex Baranowski, Philip Glass and Max Richter, all composers close to the violinist's heart.
